Re: Company Name Change – J-Devices to Become Amkor Technology Japan

As one of the world's largest OSAT providers, Amkor is pleased to support so many of the world's leading semiconductor companies.

This is to inform you that J-Devices will be officially changing our business name to Amkor Technology Japan, Inc. The change will be effective on January 1, 2020. We are excited about this name change and the evolution of our business in Japan that the new name signifies.

Please note that there has been no change in the range of products and services we offer, and the name change will not impact our ongoing teamwork.

We highly appreciate our business cooperation and your support on this adjustment.
