

Environmental Policy

Future Electronics recognizes its responsibility for protecting the environment, preventing pollution and meeting regulatory and other requirements for environmental protection. We will work in partnership with Customers, Suppliers, Governments and Communities to understand environmental issues and support environmental improvement initiatives; and strive to minimize the environmental impact of our facilities.